48 HOURS

06/03/02 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Murder In Las Vegas" - on Dec. 18 1994, Ron Rudin, a wealthy real-estate developer mysteriously disappeared from his home in Las Vegas, Nev. A month later, the charred remains of his decapitated body were found in the desert just outside the city. After a lengthy investigation authorities were convinced that Rudin's wife, Margaret was involved, but before she could be arrested, Margaret fled to Mexico. After two years on the run, Margaret Rudin was apprehended in Massachusetts and six years after the murder, the soft-spoken grandmother was sentenced to life in prison. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Diane Slaine-Siegel - P: Jay Young, Ian Paisley) (OAD: 11/16/01)

06/07/02 "Against All Odds"- profiles people who have faced life-or-death crises, including reports on: Steven Courtney and Deborah Brozman, a Portland, Oregon couple who survived the crash of a Singapore Airlines flight in Taiwan last year and, despite extensive injuries, guided 15 passengers to safety; Joanne Calabrese and Roger Marcaldi of Boston, Massachusetts who were aboard a Greek ferry which sunk after striking a rock, resulting in the drowning of 81 passengers; and Tillie Toter, an 84-year-old Fort Lauderdale woman whose car tumbled into a swamp as a result of a collision and who was trapped in the vehicle for four days, including an update on her. (C: Richard Schlesinger, Erin Moriarty, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Alec Sirken, Marcelena Spencer, Ira Sutow, Samuel Fine, Chuck Stevenson) (OAD: 05/02/01). Also includes an update on "Hostage" (OAD: 01/21/02), a report on Martin and Gracia Burnham, American missionaries held hostage by Abu Sayyaf, a Philippine terrorist group. Last week Martin was killed and his wife Gracia wounded in a rescue attempt. (C: Dan Rather - P: Sun Mi)

06/10/02 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "The Bookie's Wife"- Bob Angleton, a successful Houston, Texas bookie and confidential police informant, was arrested for the April 1997 murder of his wife Doris. Prosecutors claimed that Bob, having learned of his wife's plans to divorce him and inform the IRS of his illegal dealings, had plotted her murder with the help of his brother Roger. Before Roger could testify he committed suicide leaving a note claiming that he was the killer. Bob Angleton was tried in state court and acquitted. The broadcast also examines the issue of freedom of the press guaranteed by the First Amendment of the Constitution, focusing on Vanessa Leggett, a 33-year-old aspiring true-crime writer working on a book about the Angleton murder. Leggett was jailed for 168 days on charges of contempt of court for refusing to turn over to prosecutors tapes of interviews with confidential sources. Although one federal grand jury failed to indict Bob Angleton he could face another investigation. (Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Loen Kellay, Abra Potkin, Jenna Jackson Cook) (OAD: 01/11/02)

06/14/02 "It's All In Your Head" - focuses on scientific developments involving the human brain, including reports on: Maribeth Cook, a 41-year-old woman left partially paralyzed following a stroke, who became the first person to have brain cells from a pig fetus put directly into her brain; Bellefronds, a brain therapy developed in France which purportedly can help children with learning disabilities through the use of visual and audio exercises, thought to increase the flow of information between the two sides of the brain; Jonathan Lerman, a 14-year-old autistic artist whose paintings sell upwards of $2,000 each; Audrey Cyr, an 86-year-old Alzheimer's patient who discovered previously hidden artistic talents; and Dr. Larry Farwell, an Iowa scientist who developed brain fingerprinting, a technology which he claims analyzes the brain waves of a criminal suspect to reveal whether or not that individual has committed a crime. (C: Troy Roberts, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Miguel Sancho, Taigi Smith, Marcelena Spencer, Calre Friedland, Chris Dinan). Also includes a report on Ray Kurzweil, a computer scientist doing futuristic research on nanobots, intelligent machines the size of blood cells, which he predicts can be introduced into the brain to control different function and thoughts. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Chris Dinan) (OAD: 12/30/99 as a segment of "On The Brink")

- 06/17/02 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "A Family Torn Apart"- the brutally murdered body of Bob Dorotik, a 55-year-old engineer and father of three, was found by a mountain road near his home in the foothills of San Diego, Ca. Despite her denial of any involvement, Jane, Dorotik's wife of 30 years, was arrested for the crime. In response to the prosecution's damaging physical evidence against Jane, her attorneys tried a risky and divisive strategy -- trying to shift suspicion to Claire, the couple's daughter whose relations with her father had been strained. Jane Dorotik was tried for murder, found guilty and sentenced to 25 years to life. She has filed an appeal for a new trial. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Lisa Freed) (OAD: 12/03/01)
- 06/21/02 "Jackpot"- for six years Roby, Texas endured a devastating drought that crippled the farming business while cattle prices plummeted, and the population dwindled. On Nov. 27, 1996 the town got the miracle it needed when 43 people won the $46 million Texas lottery. The report focuses on what happened to the winners including: Jack McClure, who was just about to declare bankruptcy; Peggy Dickson, who started the Lotto pool and later died of brain cancer; Bob Terry and his daughter-in-law Renee who didn't participate in the lottery; Jim Carson, the liquor store owner who sold the winning ticket; and Lance Green, who ran unsuccessfully for town Mayor and whose former wife demanded half of his winnings and then accused him of sexually assaulting her 3-year-old daughter. Shortly after the 1998 broadcast the charges were dismissed. Green's ex-wife later sued CBS, saying the broadcast implied that she had trumped up the sexual abuse charges. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Gavin Boyle, Chuck Stevenson - P: Chuck Stevenson) (OAD: 01/08/98 with an update)
- 06/24/02 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "By Two And Two" - investigates the real-life murder mystery which inspired true crime author Jim Schutze of Dallas, Texas to write By Two And Two. The broadcast focuses on Betty Wilson and Peggy Lowe, twin sisters who were tried separately for first-degree murder for allegedly hiring a hitman -- James Dennison White -- to kill Betty's husband Jack Wilson, a wealthy Huntsville, Alabama doctor. Although both trials relied heavily on the testimony of one key witness -- White -- a known con man, drug addict and felon, Betty Wilson was convicted and sentenced to life in prison while her sister, Peggy Lowe was acquitted. White, who changed his account of the crime several times during the course of the trials, has since recanted, saying that both sisters are innocent. He refuses to testify in court that he lied -- a step that could win Betty Wilson's freedom. Betty's appeals for a new trial have thus far been denied. (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Mitch Weitzner) (OAD: 01/25/02 as "Murder They Wrote: By Two And Two")
- 06/28/02 "Death In The Desert"- focuses on programs designed to help young people with disciplinary problems, including reports on: (1) the investigation of the death -- from dehydration due to heat exposure and complications of near drowning -- of 14-year-old Anthony Haynes who was enrolled in America's Buffalo Soldiers Reenactors, a military-style boot camp in Buckeye, Arizona. Charles Franklin Long II, a self-proclaimed Colonel who founded and runs the boot camp was arrested and charged with child abuse, aggravated assault and second-degree murder. He is awaiting trial; (2) an innovative and intense alternative treatment program for troubled teenagers called MST (Multi-Systemic Therapy) which assigns a counselor to the household not only to work with the teenager, but also every influence in his or her life -- neighbors, teachers, friends and especially parents. (C: Richard Schlesinger, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Randy Martin, Patti Aronofsky)

60 MINUTES II

- 06/05/02 "Holy Grail" - a report on studies showing the potential for curing disease with the use of stem cells from umbilical cords. Includes interviews with Dr. Andrew Yeager, University of Pittsburgh, a pioneer in the field and Dr. David Harris, the laboratory director of the Cord Blood Registry. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Moseley) (OAD: 11/28/01)
- "The Lawyer & The Biker" - Edwin Matthews, a partner at Coudert Brothers, a prestigious New York law firm, decided to devote some of his time to defending -- on a pro bono basis -- inmates on death row who couldn't afford their own counsel. He found himself representing Don Paradis, a biker convicted of the 1980 murder of a young woman in Idaho. Following numerous unsuccessful appeals, Matthews unearthed new evidence that led to Paradis' release after 21 years in jail - 16 of them on death row. (C: Bob Simon - P: Harry Moses)
- "Whose Chemical Weapons?" - followup to "Whose Chemical Weapons?" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 03/08/98), dealing with tons of 30 to 40-year-old chemical weapons, including rockets, bombs and projectiles, stored in eight depots in locations across the U.S. Despite the fact that the Pentagon is aware that some of them are beginning to leak, little or nothing has been done to protect the people in neighboring communities. The followup focuses on the continuing threat to the community despite heightened security following the September 11 terrorist attacks. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Tom Flynn)
- Charles Grodin: Why so much yelling? - people fighting on television
- 06/12/02 "The Church On Trial" - Pt. I - traces the deep roots of priestly sexual abuse, its cover-up and the disregard, by the Roman Catholic Church hierarchy, for its young victims. Focuses on Father Gilbert Gauthe of the Diocese of Lafayette, LA, the first pedophile priest ever brought to trial in the United States. Includes interviews with: Ray Mouton, Gauthe's attorney; Wayne Sagrera, the father of one of his victims; Scott Gastal, himself a victim; and Father Tom Doyle, canon lawyer for the Vatican Embassy in Washington, D.C. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber, Helen Malmgren)
- "The Church On Trial" - Pt. II - examines the Church's failure to reach out to sexual abuse victims, and its efforts to stop victims from reporting the abuse. Includes interviews with: Bishop Wilton Gregory, president of the upcoming U.S. conference of Catholic Bishops; Stacie White and Lynn Lotko-Toth, two women who, as children, were raped by priests; Santiago Feliciano, former legal director, the Cleveland Diocese. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber, Helen Malmgren)
- "The Church On Trial" - Pt. III - includes a continued interview with Bishop Wilton Gregory and with Jay Milano, a Cleveland lawyer who is suing the Church under the RICO statute, which was created to fight organized crime. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber, Helen Malmgren)
- 06/19/02 "National Security Meltdown" - followup to "National Security Nightmare" (OAD: 02/03/01), an interview with Gen. Mike Hayden, director of the NSA (National Security Agency) who claimed that the agency is not keeping pace with developments in global telecommunications and that the gap has put the U.S. in danger from terrorists, including Osama bin Laden. The followup focuses on impact of this gap on the agency's failure to sound an alarm before the September 11 terrorist attacks on the Pentagon and World Trade Center. (C: David Martin - P: Mary Walsh)
- "The Philadelphia Plan" - a report on the Philadelphia Police Department's new approach in the drug war which offers first time offenders living in the city the choice between jail and drug rehabilitation. Includes an interview with Rev. Henry Wells, director of an inner-city drug program called "One Day At A Time". (C: Dan Rather - P: Steve Glauber, Christopher E. Martin)
- "The Countertenor" - an interview with Bejun Mehta, a former boy soprano, who now has a successful career in opera as a countertenor, a male singer able to reach a high range usually associated with female voices. Includes an interview with mezzo-soprano Marilyn Horne, Bejun's friend and mentor. (C: Bob Simon - P: Joel Bernstein) (OAD: 01/30/02)
- Charles Grodin: plastic surgery (OAD: 05/29/01)

06/26/02 "Falsely Accused"- followup to "It's All A Lie" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 09/22/96), a report on Richard Jewell, a private security guard who was falsely accused of setting off a bomb at the Atlanta Olympics in 1996. The followup consists of an interview with Jewell who talks about what actually happened that night in Atlanta and his ordeal during the five years since he was named a suspect. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Tom Anderson) (OAD: 01/02/02)

"Saving Ryan"- in 1991, Ryan Dant, a three-year-old Dallas boy, was diagnosed with MPS-1 (Mucopolysaccharidosis). Mark Dant, the child's father set upon a quest to fund research on the rare, fatal disease which culminated in a meeting with Dr. Emil Kakkis, one of the few researchers studying MPS-1, who successfully alleviated symptoms of the disease through the administration of a synthetic version of the enzyme that MPS-1 children lack. (C: Vick Mabrey - P: Miriam Weintraub Blanks) (OAD: 04/24/01)

"9-Day Wonder"- New York's City Center, a non-profit theater, has begun the ninth season of its series "Encores!" - revivals of old Broadway musicals staged on a shoestring budget.
